

United Republic Bank supports Lydia House and Open Door Mission

(Omaha, NE) – This holiday season, United Republic Bank is proud to announce participation in the Open Door Mission's Lydia House Diaper Drive which runs from November 21st to December 14th. The diaper drive is held annually to support homeless mothers at the Lydia House and needy mothers through Homeless Prevention Programs.

Beginning November 21st, donations of diapers can be brought to United Republic Bank's lobby during normal business hours. All sizes are welcome, but sizes 4, 5, and 6 are needed most!

Additionally during this season of giving, United Republic Bank is also holding a Food Drive for the Open Door Mission. Over 200,000 meals are provided this holiday season to the hungry and homeless in the Heartland. They are in need of canned vegetables, canned fruit, cereal, cookies, peanut butter, boxed meals, boxed potatoes, canned meat, pasta/pasta sauce, soup, and mac 'n cheese. Collection of those items will continue through noon on December 14th inside the lobby of United Republic Bank.

Mike Pate, President and CEO of United Republic Bank states, "As a locally owned community bank, we're pleased to have the opportunity to give back in a way that enriches the lives of those families in our community who are in most need".
